

What is Energy Cork?

- Energy Cork is the industry cluster for the energy sector in Cork. The Cluster represents the voice of the energy industry in Cork and currently has over 90 industry members
- Energy Cork is an industry-driven cluster pursuing coordinated actions to support enterprise and job creation within the energy sector in the Cork region.
- Energy Cork is supported by Cork City Council and Cork County Council through their respective Economic Development Funds dedicated to enterprise support and job creation.
- Energy Cork supports all members to play an active role in mitigating climate change and biodiversity loss.
- Energy Cork encourages and facilitates networking at all levels of the energy sector.
- Energy Cork delivers high quality and relevant energy related briefings, events and conferences.
- Energy Cork aims to raise the profile of the Cork Region internationally through partnerships and events.
- Energy Cork highlights the strength of energy and climate education and research in Cork.

Why Join Energy Cork?

- Be part of Ireland's largest and most vibrant energy cluster
- Help the Cork energy sector play a leading role in climate action
- Grow your company's profile amongst Cork's energy industry
- Participate in all of Energy Cork's briefings, networking events and conferences
- Contribute to job creation and economic development in Cork
- Learn about improving energy efficiency and reducing energy costs
- Build the profile of the region as Ireland's Energy Hub
- Influence local, regional and national policy
- Identify new collaborators, customers and opportunities.